

Inauguration of Electoral Literacy Club at Kavikulguru Institute of Technology and Science, Ramtek

Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) is a platform to engage college students through interesting activities and hands-on experience to sensitize them on their electoral rights and familiarise them with the process of name registration in electoral roll. Through ELC, the Election Commission of India aims at strengthening the culture of electoral participation among young and future voters. With this motto, Kavikulguru Institute of Technology and Science, Ramtek on 18th November 2021 inaugurated the club with the hands of Mrs. Sarika Dhatri, Nayab Tahsildar, Ramtek. Sarika Dhatri, Nayab Tahsildar explained entire processes and a named the necessary documents required for filling the voter registration form.

Dr. Avinash Srikanth, Officiating Principal, motivated the students to actively participate in the electoral process and mark the institute having maximum registration. The inaugural ceremony of the ELC witnessed the presence of Dr. Avinash Srikanth, Officiating Principal, Dr. Pankaj Ashtankar, Dean of Student Activities along with Mr. Bhushan Deshpande, Associate Dean, ICT, Dr. Sharad Pokale, Head of the ESH Department, Dr. Yashwant Jibhate, Head of the Mechanical Engineering Department, Mrs. Saroj Shambharkar, Head of the Information Technology Department, Mr. Chandrashekhar Sawarkar, Head of the Architecture Department. Dr.

Pankaj Ashtankar formally welcomed the dignitaries and proposed the vote of thanks to all dignitaries present and students.